

Commencement 2002

Headmaster Burke leads the Class of 2002 toward graduation -- and their future.

At the close of every academic year, we are privileged to receive warm messages from grateful parents. This year, I am delighted to share excerpts from Laura Kelly's recent letter. Laura and her husband, Jim, are the proud parents of Gregory '02. I think Laura speaks most eloquently about the purpose and reality of St. Sebastian's School:

"In the end, it all came so fast, an extraordinary end to an extraordinary experience. I wanted to suspend time, to detach from the emotions and really be able to hear the words of graduation; to hold them all close so I could take the time later to ponder their meaning. So many messages that we needed to hear; the catharsis of our emotions, slowing down to be fully in the present, knowing that our sons have the right focus.

And in the end, it was all that you promised so long ago at the pre-admission gathering at the Keefe's home. A school with a clear mission, a place where you are not entitled by what you have, a place where gentlemen are taught to love God, work hard and take care of one another. A place where Greg has grown into the young man we envisioned, Greg's experience at St. Sebastian's has fulfilled the hope we brought to that meeting at the Keefe's house for a place that would help to reinforce the values that we hold in our home. And it was all of that and more.

Our entire family has found a place in the St. Sebastian community, and that makes it all the harder to leave the day-to-day excitement of the school. We fully intend to come back in our joy and our sorrow. And we will always be supporters of St. Sebastian's School. Please always feel that you can call on us to help. Thank you for being an important part of the village."
